British Egg Industry Council

TECHNICAL MANAGER

Help us to shape the future of the British egg industry

The British Egg Industry Council (BEIC) is looking for a Technical Manager to help shape, maintain and develop the standards behind the British Lion Code of Practice – a world-leading food safety assurance scheme that underpins UK consumer confidence in British eggs.

About The British Egg Industry Council

The BEIC represents the UK egg industry to Government, Parliament and other key stakeholders. It also owns and operates the world-leading British Lion Code of Practice, which has underpinned the production of safe, quality British eggs for nearly 30 years.

The Opportunity

This is an excellent opportunity for someone with technical knowledge of the egg industry to make a real difference at a national level. Working closely with the Standards Director, you will play an important role in ensuring the British Lion Code of Practice continues to deliver robust, relevant and consistently applied technical standards.

The role will involve travel across the UK, working directly with the industry and representing the BEIC at stakeholder and government meetings, providing technical expertise and helping shape the future direction of the British Lion Code of Practice.

Salary: £50K to £60K + pension and benefits

Location: Home-based/ hybrid working

About you

We are looking for a proactive, organised and self-motivated professional with a strong understanding of the egg industry.

You will have strong communication and interpersonal skills, be comfortable working independently and as part of a team and be confident engaging with a range of industry stakeholders.

Good IT skills, including Microsoft Office, right to work in the UK and a full driving licence are essential.

To apply

Please send your CV, together with a brief covering email outlining your suitability for the role, to:

beic@britisheggindustrycouncil.com

Closing date for applications: 4 December 2026

Equal Opportunities

BEIC is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applications from suitably qualified candidates from all backgrounds. Reasonable adjustments are available throughout the recruitment process
